5.1. Agreements concluded as a result of acceptance of this Offer are valid until December 31, 2022, Agreements concluded until that date are valid until the Parties fully fulfill their obligations under this Agreement.

5.2. This Agreement may be terminated:

- by either Party by providing a 30-day written notice to the other Party; or
- in the event of breach of this Agreement and current legislation unilaterally by either Party by providing a 10-day written notice to the other Party; or
- immediately upon occurrence of the event described in Clause 1.5. and 1.6.

5.3. The expiration of the Offer or early termination does not relieve the Parties from the obligation to complete settlements and payment Agency fees for the provided services.

5.4. The Principal has the right to terminate this Agreement unilaterally with the immediate effect in case the Principal detects any suspicious activity on the Agent's account, the Agent brings any or negative results, misleads or performs directly or indirectly any type of fraud, for any other reason of violation of this Agreement or General Terms.

6. SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

6.1. The Parties will make efforts to resolve all disputes that may arise on the Offer through negotiations and consultations. Any Party may begin negotiations and/or consultations after providing written notification to the other Party of its intention to begin such negotiations. All claims under this Agreement and must be considered by the Parties within 15 (fifteen) days from the date of their receipt.

6.2. If the parties do not achieve agreement on the dispute, then the dispute is referred to the District Court of Limassol in accordance with the applicable laws of the Republic of Cyprus.

7. FORCE MAJEURE

7.1. The Parties are relieved from responsibility for complete or Partial failure to fulfill obligations hereunder if the default resulted from actions of force majeure, namely: fire, flood, earthquake, strike, war, acts of public, epidemics, etc.

7.2. If any of the following circumstances directly resulted in non-performance of obligations within the terms established by this Agreement, then these terms are proportionally extended for the duration of the relevant circumstances.

7.3. If these circumstances continue for more than 2 (two) calendar months, each of the Parties will have the right to take the initiative to terminate this Agreement due to the impossibility of its execution. If the Parties decide to terminate this Agreement for this reason, neither Party will be entitled to compensation for possible losses.

7.4. A Party that is unable to fulfill its obligations under this Agreement must notify the other Party in writing in a timely manner but no later than 5 (five) calendar days after the occurrence of force majeure event by providing supporting documents issued by the competent authority.

7.5. Failure to report or untimely notification of the occurrence of force majeure deprives the Party of the right to refer to any of the above circumstances as a basis for relieving from liability for non-performance of obligations.

7.6. The Parties acknowledge that the insolvency of the Parties is not a force majeure event.

8. CONFIDENTIALITY AND GDPR

8.1. The Parties undertake to keep confidentiality with respect to information received during the execution of the Agreement. By mutual consent of the Parties, any information relating to the subject and content of the Agreement, performance and results obtained, as well as information about personal data subjects, is considered confidential. Each Party shall protect confidential information made available to it under the Agreement from unauthorized use, distribution or publication. Such information will not be transferred to third Parties without the written permission of the other Party and used for other purposes other than fulfilling the obligations under the Agreement.

8.2. Both Parties shall take appropriate technical and organizational measures against unauthorized or unlawful processing of "Personal Data" as per and shall comply with the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679 (GDPR) and any such other relevant national legislation as may be in force from time to time in Cyprus.

8.3. Any damage caused by a breach of the terms of confidentiality and/or GDPR regulation shall be determined and compensated in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Cyprus.

8.4. Obtaining the consent to processing from the subject of Personal Data can be done by pressing the appropriate electronic key (check mark), indicating that you are familiar with the «consent of the subject to the processing of his personal data».

9. SURVIVAL

9.1. On termination and/or expiry of this Agreement, Clause 8 (Confidentiality and GDPR) shall continue to be in force indefinitely.

9.2. Termination and/ or expiry of this Agreement shall not affect any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities of the parties that have accrued up to the date of termination and/or expiry, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Agreement which existed at or before the date of termination and/or expiry.

10. OTHER CONDITION

10.1. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in respect of the matters dealt with herein. This Agreement supersedes all prior negotiations between the Parties and all representations and undertakings made by one Party to the other, whether written or oral.

10.2. The Parties have agreed that the correspondence between them may be made via fax and/or email. The Parties acknowledge legal force of electronic letters, fax documents and scanned copies of documents and recognize their equivalent to the documents on paper, signed the handwritten signature, subject to the subsequent mandatory exchange of originals.

10.3. The Parties may not transfer to third Parties in full or in part the rights and obligations under this Agreement.

10.4. Any and all provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law. If any provision of this Agreement shall nevertheless be held to be prohibited by and/or invalid under applicable law, such provision shall be limited only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity, without affecting the validity and/or enforceability the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

10.5. Legal relations between the Parties that are not regulated by the Agreement are regulated by the current legislation of the Republic of Cyprus.

10.6. Omission by the Party to require fulfilment of any term of the Agreement and/or to seek recourse any rights under the Agreement shall not be construed as a waiving of such right(s) to do so at some later date, nor shall it in any way impair the Agreement or the rights of the Parties under the Agreement.

10.7. Failure or delay by the Parties in exercising any right under this Agreement or in enforcing or partially enforcing a provision thereof will not constitute a waiver of its rights. A waiver by one Party of a breach or default of the other Party will not be deemed a waiver of a subsequent breach or default and will not affect the other terms of this Agreement.

10.8. The Parties may establish modifications and/or amendments of this Agreement, provided the authorized representatives of the Parties agree them upon in writing.

10.9. All appendixes to the present Agreement are to be considered integral parts thereof.

10.11. A Party that has failed to perform or improperly performed its obligations under this Agreement is obliged to compensate the other Party for the losses caused by such non-performance. The burden of proof of damages is on the injured Party. Payment of such penalty does not release the Parties from performing its obligations under this Agreement. The penalty by this Agreement shall be paid upon reasonable written claim of the injured Party.
